

RCLS January Culture Class Teacher of Month

Yuang-Sheng (Jason) Kao 高永生

RCLS is proud to announce our January Culture Class Teacher of Month – Tai-Chi teacher Yuang-Sheng (Jason) Kao to our RCLS families. Jason has been RCLS Tai-Chi teacher more than 10 years. To teach a large group of adults in our school, Mr. Kao really need to have a lot of patience and passions to bring them into the world of Tai-Chi as the class is mixed of beginners as well as Tai-Chi veterans. He spent a lot of time outside of class to prepare new materials, such that there are always new things to learn in Tai-Chi class. When not teaching Tai-Chi classes, Mr. Kao leads Tai-Chi class to perform in many culture events in the Triangle area. In addition to his regular Tai-Chi class hour during the semesters, Mr. Kao continues Tai-Chi classes during summers.

His students speak highly about the way Mr. Kao teaches Tai-Chi inside and outside of classes:

“Mr. Kao is very patient with student and always goes extra mile to help student to get better.”

“Mr. Kao is very enthusiastic and passionate in teaching Tai-Chi. I never felt that I am a slow learner even though I am actually a slow learner.”

“Mr. Kao always motivates the whole class to learn and pay personal attention when additional instruction is needed.”

You can see why Mr. Kao is the winner of our January Culture Class Teacher of Month based on what students are speaking of his teaching. RCLS is glad to have him as one of our outstanding teachers. We will like to congratulate Mr. Kao and wish he continue his excellent teaching performance inside and outside his classroom.
