

RCLS January Teacher of Month

Maggie Lin 林孟君

RCLS is proud to announce our January Teacher of Month – CC3 teacher Maggie Lin to our RCLS families. Ms. Lin has started to teach at the RCLS since last semester. She actually had to take over CC3 in the middle of Fall 2014 semester. However, she did not take too long to get the CC3 class get right back to track. Not only she made sure the transition is smooth for her students, but she also communicated to the parents quickly to let them know how she will teach in the class. If you have chance to see the way she teaches CC3, you can see how eager she wants to teach her students. Parents of her students speak highly about the way Ms. Lin teaches Chinese inside and outside of classes:

“She is very experienced to teach Chinese. She is really good at communicating with students and parents.”

“She always encourage students and show her students best way to learn Chinese. We always got her emails about my children’s Chinese learning progress.”

“She provides excellent teaching material to help all students to learn theory online.”

“Ms. Lin has remarkable teaching experience toward students and parents.”

These words pretty much explain the reason why Ms. Lin is our January Teacher of Month. The RCLS is glad to have her to be one of our outstanding teachers. We will like to congratulate Ms. Lin and wish she can continue her excellent Chinese teaching performance inside and outside the classroom.
